Square and Round Dance Club

Newsletter for April 7th, 2019

Message from Presidents

David and Peggy Edwards

We would like to say how sorry we feel about Zari's accident. We are praying for her speedy recovery. We have had inquiries from other clubs concerning her, and they are wishing her well.

I would like to thank Nick and Diane for filling in for us this weekend at the NORTEX quarterly meeting. We are confident they will do an excellence job, as always, and secure one of the dates we have chosen for our pre-roundup dance.

We would like to remind the Swinging Stars of our important semi-annual club meeting coming up on May 19th. There will be several items brought before the club, and some may require a vote. There will be more on this as the agenda is confirmed. We urge all Swinging Stars to attend. Don't let the minority decide for the majority. The entire membership's involvement is what makes the Swinging Stars a successful club.

Regards,
David and Peggy Edwards

Sunshine information

From Lucy Hamm our Sunshine Reporter

Nevin Mulvin's reverse shoulder replacement surgery went well Wednesday and he was scheduled to go home Thursday afternoon. He will be in a sling for awhile followed by 4 months of "rehab". After her surgery on Sunday, Zari Kiliejian went to Baylor Scott and White Rehabilitation Hospital in Frisco Tuesday night. She said it is a lot of hard work and they keep her so busy she hardly has time for a nap. She is tired in a good way; she is able to lift up her foot off the ground slowly. The staff is attentive but Zari hopes she will not have to stay too long.

We will continue to keep Nevin and Zari in our thoughts and prayers. Also we continue to keep Bob Estep in our thoughts and prayers for a successful recovery.
